The Indianapolis Children's Choir Kicks Off Its 37th Annual Concert Season

October 3, 2022

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

INDIANAPOLIS - - The Indianapolis Children's Choir (ICC) will begin its 37th Concert Season on October 8, 2022 with our concert entitled Journey. Singers from 12 different ICC choirs will present a full-length concert at 7:00 pm at STAR Bank Performing Arts Center in Zionsville.

"We look forward to welcoming the community to the first concert of the ICC's 2022 - 2023 Concert Season. This concert has been designed take the audience on a journey as we share a story with them that will inspire us to create a brighter image of what our world can become as we unite voices throughout the community to celebrate what connects us all - music," shares Joshua Pedde, Artistic Director of the ICC.

Singers will share through song how new ideas play a vital role in seeking change as they honor the past and celebrate the future with repertoire carefully selected by the ICC's artistic staff.

As singers take the audience on a musical Journey, they will grow and learn together through song as we all strive to make the world a better place. Singers will perform songs from around the world, including an Angolan folk song, and songs in Spanish, Latin, Bulgarian, and a unique song based upon a single Australian Aboriginal word. Mixed with various songs in English and traditional American folk songs, plus a piece with text by Langston Hughes, the music is sure to inspire.

The concert will feature singers from the ICC's Beginning Level Choirs (with locations in Boone County, Carmel, Fishers, Hendricks County, Johnson County, and Indianapolis), Chamber, Lyric, Kantorei, Indy Voice 1, Indy Voice 2, and the ICC's high school choir, Master Chorale.

Tickets are $14 each and can be purchased online in advance at icchoir.org/tickets. Ages 5 and under can attend for free, but require a ticket. If the concert does not sell out in advance, additional tickets will be available for purchase at the door prior to the performance. We look forward to welcoming the community to the 2022 - 2023 Concert Season!

About the Indianapolis Children's Choir

Currently in its 37th season, the Indianapolis Children's Choir has grown to become one of the largest professional children's choirs in the world. Led by Artistic Director Joshua Pedde, the ICC serves more than 2,500 central Indiana children from ages 18 months through 18 years. The Indianapolis Children's Choir nurtures and inspires student achievement through quality music education and the pursuit of artistic excellence in choral music performance.
