Come learn about current best practices in choral music from Dr. Anthony Trecek-King

Dr. Anthony Trecek-King is a highly acclaimed choral conductor, scholar, pedagogue, and media personality with a career spanning over 20 years. He is an active guest conductor and serves as a Resident Conductor (chorus) with the Handel and Haydn Society. Recognized for his ability to create moving performances that exhibit a surprising range of dynamics and depth of expression, Dr. Trecek-King excels at cultivating vocal and instrumental musicians at all levels. Through his collaborative rehearsal style, he bridges the gap between high art and humanity, captivating audiences while maintaining exceptional sonic quality.

Bring your students to experience the ICC through the Neighborhood Choir Academy!

Individual students can attend for $10, or bring your entire choir for $50 total. Fees help to pay for clinician costs and are supported by ICC Outreach Programming.
