Indianapolis Children's Choir Publishing House Debuts New Choral Series from Henry Leck

January 9, 2024
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

INDIANAPOLIS - - The Indianapolis Children's Choir (ICC) Publishing House and Beckenhorst Press are thrilled to announce a new choral series from Henry Leck, the ICC's Founder and Conductor Laureate. The Artistry & Excellence Henry Leck Choral Series is debuting with 11 octavos, alongside 12 new octavos from the ICC Publishing House—a true demonstration of the expertise and leadership that both have in the field of choral music.

"This choral release debuts the new choral series for Henry Leck, a world-renowned conductor and the founder of the ICC. Artistry & Excellence will feature new composers and songs to our ICC Publishing House and we are excited to offer them to our customers," explains Leeann Starkey who serves as the Co-Editor of the ICC Publishing House and the Curriculum Coordinator, as well as a director with the ICC.

Leck has used his years of expertise to specially select music for the Artistry & Excellence Henry Leck Choral Series, ensuring that every piece represents a quality, artistic selection for choral ensembles. The ICC Publishing House is excited to continue his legacy for bringing outstanding choral repertoire to life.

In addition to the new choral series, the ICC Publishing House is releasing 12 additional songs that range in style and voice arrangement. "This new choral release will take you from New Orleans jazz, through the mountains, and even into the church," shares Joshua Pedde, current Artistic Director of the ICC.

As with all music and materials published by the ICC, all 23 new pieces are especially designed for developing young voices and are available digitally, and exclusively at beckenhorstpress.com/icc. A full listing of newly released octavos is included below.
