Indianapolis Children's Choir to Perform at Iconic Carnegie Hall

January 7, 2026

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

INDIANAPOLIS - - The Indianapolis Children's Choir (ICC), which is celebrating 40 years in the Central Indiana community, is preparing for an ambitious trip to Carnegie Hall this June. Over 180 ICC singers from kindergarten all the way to ICC alumni will travel to New York City to present Jubilate Deo, a master work that was commissioned for the ICC by renowned composer Dan Forrest. But not all the magic is reserved for the audience in the Big Apple. The choir will present pieces of Jubilate Deo at Indy's own famous music venue, Hilbert Circle Theatre, on March 8, 2026.

"This is not only a celebration of 40 years of song, but it's a display of the amazing musicianship that has been cultivated over this time that we continue to instill in our current singers," explains Joshua Pedde, Executive Artistic Director of the ICC. "This type of opportunity to sing on one of the most famous stages in our city, and then again on an even bigger stage, is something that the ICC takes great pride in providing."

The performance at Carnegie Hall will be the culmination of the choir's 40th anniversary season that is sponsored by Everwise Credit Union. While tickets aren't on sale yet for the NYC concert on June 24, locals can already purchase tickets for the Indianapolis presentation of Jubilate Deo. The piece holds a special place in the choir's history, as it was commissioned to celebrate the ICC's 30th anniversary.

"Bringing this massive piece back to life will be incredibly special for our singers. It has seven movements, most in different languages, and all accompanied by an orchestra. It's a challenge to learn, and a true joy to listen to – something that I think any audience will be wowed by," shares Pedde.

While the music and performances are all high caliber, the ICC takes great care in making sure that this level of artistry is open to all singers, regardless of their level of experience. New singers can be accepted at any time, with the start of the semester being an ideal time to jump in and begin learning. The choir is currently running an enrollment special for joining in January that includes discounts and the opportunity to still join the trip to sing at Carnegie Hall.
