Indianapolis Children's Choir Publishing House Adds 20 New Songs in New Year

January 20, 2026

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

INDIANAPOLIS - - The Indianapolis Children's Choir's (ICC) publishing arm is proud to announce the addition of 20 new octavos to their extensive line-up of choral repertoire and educational materials. The ICC Publishing House was founded in 2022 as a collaboration between the renown children's choir and the respected Beckenhorst Press. All materials are available exclusively in digital format and range from choral octavos to educational books.

"We are incredibly thrilled to be able to offer such a showcase of music and knowledge through the ICC Publishing House. It all started with wanting to bring new choral pieces and arrangements to life for our singers in the ICC while making these great octavos accessible to other singers around the world," shared Joshua Pedde, Executive Artistic Director of the ICC and editor of the ICC Publishing House.

This new release marks the seventh since the founding of the Publishing House, bringing the total number of songs available into the 239 range. There is also a dedicated Henry Leck Artistry & Excellence Series that continues the legacy of the ICC's founder, Henry Leck. All octavos for different voicings, educational materials, and books are available now at beckenhorstpress.com/icc. This January's release includes the following new pieces:

- A Thousand Tongues - arr. John Stebbe
- Bless the Lord - Brent Lee Larimore
- Gloria - Will Lopes
- The Whole World - arr. Ken Berg
- Hey, Silly Sally! - Ken Berg
- Joshua Fit the Battle - arr. Julia Bozarth
- Midnight Hour - GA Hennig
- Spread Some Sunshine Around - Nancy Whitecar
